

HEAT TREATMENT WORKSHOP

2 DAYS

Providing a basic understanding of the relationships between structure, processing & properties of the more important industrial metals.

Suitable for those in technical, production, quality or commercial roles involving heat treatment

Fundamentals of Metallurgy

Tuesday 16th January

- Review of existing knowledge
- Structure of metals
- Properties of metals & how they are measured
- Processing of metals
- Choosing a metal
- Standards & quality assessment

Principles of Heat Treatment

Wednesday 17th January

- Why heat treat?
- Strengthening of metals
- Heat treatment terminology
- Heating, soaking, cooling, quenching
- Furnaces & furnace issues
- Accreditation & testing

Participation is free of charge to qualifying SMEs in the Sheffield City Region.

To register please contact Jack Greenwood
j.greenwood@amrc.co.uk 0114 222 4446

AMRC Training Centre
Advanced Manufacturing Park, Off Highfield Spring,
Catcliffe, Rotherham, S60 5BL